July 2012: Under a Windshield Wiper Near You

If you proudly carry the colors of UHCL on your vehicle — and we certainly hope that you do — you might want to keep an eye on your windshield wipers.

We appreciate how you represent the university as a student, alumnus, donor, friend, parent of student and so on, and we also appreciate when you "fly the flag" with a decal, bumper sticker or license plate holder that carries the UHCL name, logo or message. And now we have a way to say thank you for doing so.

A team of staff members and alumni leaders will soon be carrying a small thank you card. Business card in size, it carries two important messages: 1. "Thank you for making a difference in our community," and 2. Top Four Ways to Get Involved. We love that you proudly carry the UHCL name, and we would love to have you involved, too.

Some college stickers and decals are almost ubiquitous; UHCL's are less common, though becoming more visible. And when the new mascot is announced (soon, very soon!), there will likely be even more UHCL identification visible in the community. When a member of the team of "card carriers" comes across a vehicle carrying a UHCL message, he or she will place the card under the windshield wiper. Why? Because we truly appreciate you and your pride in Your UHCL.
