Acquisition Information

The first collection of School of Education records was transferred to the University Archives on February 15, 2004. The original collection was housed in a number of folders and consisted of syllabi housed in folders divided by course number.

A second collection of School of Education records was transferred to the University Archives on August 16, 2005. The collection was housed in a folder, an envelope, two large paper clamps, and a binder. It consisted of records involving the School of Education's Six Year Plan.

A third collection of School of Education records was transferred to the University Archives on July 24, 2007. The collection was housed in a folder and consisted of records pertaining to the university's dealings with the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

Processed by: Gerald Churchill

Preferred Citation: UHCL School of Education Records, #2009-0006. University Archives, University of Houston-Clear Lake.

Scope and Content

The collection is divided into two parts. Boxes 1 to 3 consist of course syllabi that describe the objectives for numerous School of Education courses. In addition to describing course objectives, the syllabi describe course requirements and, in many cases, course schedules.

Box 4 consists of subject files. These files pertain to the School of Education's dealings with the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the School of Education's Six-Year Plan, the School of Education's graduate faculty, the University of Houston Clear Lake's Shared Governance, Total Quality Management, the School of Education's Transitional Six-Year Plan, and the School of Education's dealings with the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

Arrangement

The first donation was organized in folders alphabetically according to course rubric. The second donation was placed in folders with a subject name. The third donation (the NCATE folder) was kept in the folder that it arrived in and was placed in an Archives folder.
