

In 1941, the Seabrook Volunteer Fire Department was established. Oscar Key was appointed as the first fire chief. The first fire truck is an old bread delivery truck outfitted with a tank and centrifugal pump.