Restrictions on Access: There are no restrictions on accessing this collection.

Restrictions on Use

Most of the material in the collection are reproductions or copyrighted publications acquired by Gloria Wells. As such, the UHCL Archives does not hold rights to any such materials. Copyright remains with the creator or publisher under Title 17 of the U.S. Copyright Law. Researchers are responsible for obtaining permission from the copyright holder(s) to use materials beyond the "fair use" clause of the U.S. Copyright Law. All NASA original photographs or materials marked as being produced by "NASA" are federal government records, and have no copyright claim apart materials produced by NASA contractors.

Acquisition Information

The collection was donated to the University of Houston-Clear Lake Archives and Special Collections by Gloria Wells at an unspecified time before 2012. No official paperwork was completed, though a signed not indicating donation was received. The materials were originally stored in a closet, believed to be in a property that Wells' real estate work with the Wells Company Houston brought her into ownership of at some point.

Preferred Citation: Gloria Wells Papers (#2016-0010), University of Houston-Clear Lake Archives.

Biographical/Historical Note

Gloria Robb Wells was a real estate appraiser in the Clear Lake area of Houston, Texas. She graduated from Webster University of San Antonio in 1963, with a degree in English literature. Wells was a member of the National Association of Independent Fee Appraisers. After moving to Texas, she ran the real estate appraisal company Wells Company Houston in Houston, Texas, until its closure.

Scope and Content

The collection is composed of NASA educational materials, community planning and visitor materials, photographs, newspaper articles, magazines, newsletters, posters, and artwork, documenting the history of the Clear Lake area of Houston Texas, and the NASA Manned Spacecraft Center (later Johnson Space Center). The materials cover the period of 1961 to 2008, though most of the items are dated between 1961 and 1969. The materials were originally stored in a closet, believed to be in a property that real estate appraiser Gloria Robb Wells of the Wells Company Houston had been working with at some point. The original owner of the materials is unknown.
