

It is shown that a division ring of real quaternions can be made into a partially ordered ring with a directed partial order.