

Arrangements Made To Visit Prison--

Bayshore Peace Officers Meet

Guest speaker at the Bayshore Peace Officers Association meeting on Feb. 8 was Sgt. Randall Gilmore of the Dept. of Public Safety. He showed an instructive film.

Constable Jake Bussey announced that arrangements have been made of a one-day trip to Huntsville to visit the State Prison System. This trip is scheduled for Tuesday, March 14. He said interested persons should contact Ellis Reel for reservations.

The next meeting of the association will be held at the County Building in La Porte on Wednesday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m. Capt. Gus George will be the speaker.

NEWS ITEM

Feb. 17, 1967

The Bayshore Peace Officers Association held their monthly meeting on February 8, 1967 at the Seabrook City Hall.

The guest speaker Sgt. Randall Gilmore of the Dept. of Public Safety showed a most interesting and instructive film.

Constable Jake Bussey has announced that arrangements have been made for a one day trip to Huntsville, Texas to visit the State Prison System which is scheduled for Tuesday March 14, 1967. Anyone interested in going please contact Mr. Ellis Reel for reservations.

The next monthly meeting will be held at the County Building in La Porte, Texas on Wednesday March 8, 1967 at 7:30 P. M.

Program Chairman Mr. B. K. McAbee has announced that Capt. Gus George of the Harris County Sheriff's Dept. Juvenile Division will be guest speaker for the March meeting.

A cordial invitation to attend the meetings is extended to anyone interested in law enforcement, by Lonnie W. Lingle President of the Association.

Peace Officers Plan Visit to State Prison

SEABROOK-Sergeant Randall Gilmore of the Dept. of Public Safety presented an interesting and instructive film to the Bayshore Peace Officers Association at the February meeting held at Seabrook City Hall.

Constable Jake Bussey announced arrangements have been made for a one day trip March 14, to visit the State Prison System, in Huntsville. Interested persons should contact Ellis Reel for reservations.

The next meeting of the Bayshore Peace Officers Association will be held at 7:30 p.m. March 8, at the County building in LaPorte with Capt. Gus George of the Harris County Sheriff's Dept. Juvenile Division, guest speaker.

A cordial invitation to attend the meeting is extended by president Lonnie W. Lingle to anyone interested in law enforcement.

La Porte-Bayshore

Sum

2/23/67

New Citizen

2/23/67