

The first store was built in 1879 near the north bank of Clear Lake by the Palm brothers who brought in supplies from Galveston on their schooner. The store was later moved to a building located across from the depot.