130 acres, including Rugers Hotel, were purchased by Harris County in 1910 for the Seabrook School for Delinquent Boys. The property eventually became the Lakewood Yacht Club.

LAKEVIEW HOTEL (Formerly Hotel Rugers), Seabrook, Texas
MRS. L. EWERT, Proprietress

Refurnished from basement to garret. Every modern convenience. Large rooms constructed so as to get the full benefit of the delightful sea breeze. Salt and artesian baths. Tables supplied with every delicacy of the season, prepared by cooks who know how. Finest fishing in the State. A beautiful cedar grove in rear of hotel, which makes a delightful place for picnics. Situated only four blocks from the G., H. & N. depot—the popular scenic route to the gulf.
